CAVALRY-MAUI POLO AT MOANALUA TODAY

Close Game Expected-Lovers of the Sport Are Guessing as to Result.

A big crowd of pole enthusiasts and near-enthusiasts will go to Moanalua field this afternoon to witness the big game between the Cavalry and Maul teams. The game will begin at three o'clock.

The teams are fairly well matched in the matter of skill and mounts, and there is every reason to expect a close contest for the honors of the day. The Mani team has played one game, with Kauai, and lost, but it is remembered that they played against what is considered the best team in Hawaii, so far, and the Cavalry four has lost two games. The Maui team claims to be in possession of as good ponies as could be found anywhere in the Territory, and the players are a hardy quartet. The Cavalry four also have good mounts and they ought to be good riders, if experience is worth anything. The Maui lineup includes Frank and Harry Baldwin, David Fleming and Harold Rice; the Cavalry, Capts. M. D. Forsyth and C. W. Stewart and Lieuts.

The attendance at the interisland series has been remarkably large conand Moanalna field. Persons without concealing the scars of the initiation rigs or automobiles of their own have beneath their smiles of satisfaction, to pay fifty cents for transportation to and from the grounds and a dollar to large number of persons there who the affair leaked out last night. Joy have no conveyances of their own,

The Leilehua grounds are beautiful, his delivery being all to the bad. The but too far from the city for the enthusiast lacking a motor or buggy. A good many polo enthusiasts regret the fact that Kapiolani Park has not been out in shape for the series.

The Oahu and Maui teams play next Saturday afternoon.

TOURNAMENT STARS

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Rhode Island, August 6 .- The polo players of the ity troop defeated the four of Cooperstown, led by Malcolm Stevenson, by the net score of 984 to 912 goals, on the field of the Point Judith Country Club Friday. The ending of this match, which gave to the victorious team a place in the final round of the Khode Island cup series, was fought out at a

The Philadelphians are easily the tars of the present tournament. They have completely changed since they were defeated by Myopia second for the unior championship, having defeated that four in this series and also Bryn Mawr and Cooperstown Friday. It is a record for polo. At the threw in of the eighth period Malcolm Stevenson, playing No. 3 for cooperstown, made a miss as he galloped for the ball, which allowed F. S. Converse, the City troop No. 1, to score. hen followed some lively gallops, alhough all of the men in their riding off extremely eareful, for only three is were called during the match.

Up to within two minutes of the end neither side was able to score. In the few minutes that the match continued the City troop riders carried the ball safely away from the goal and won by

SANTA MONICA RACE REPORTER TACKLED A LARGE ASSIGNMENT

Story Too Big to Handle, and He Came Away Without Getting All the News.

The interviewer bashfully stuck one finger in the corner of his mouth and Doctor Hand Will Organize looked sideways at the young lady before him. He had never tackled such be a two-days' affair, with a light ear a "large" assignment before and did- race on the first day and free-for-al n't know just where to begin. The and a medium car and heavy car race "to-be-interviewed" was Miss Jolly Trixie who poses as the fattest lady in

The reporter looked down his emaciated length and blushed and as he realized that he came up to Miss Trixie's requirement for a husband as advertised-"Thin with long arms," said the advertisements and the reporter was thin and had long arms-this The gentlemen speiler then arose and announced that the parents of the young lady were quite normal people weighing hardly 150 pounds apiece. This suggested an opening question, "How much do you weigh?" he ask-on personal questions. Six hundred and fifty-eight pounds, eleven ounces, but they always all leave ments," said the dainty creature, coyly, putting one knee over the other. Do you weigh as much as your ad-ertisements? "Not when we have all of our adyertisements with us. Do we, Baby?' she asked sweetly of her brother who only weighs five hundred pounds and doesn't come in for much notoriety.

"Baby" grunted a disgranted grunt. Being fat was boresome occupation for "Do you want to buy a picture of e?" he said methodically. "Ten eents." The interviewer declined and made known his occupation to the What'll I ask you?" he begged, having a dim idea that she would think in some fat obese language and along obese lines incomprehensible to the ordinary person, who was some five hundred pounds lighter.

"Why don't you ask me about that !. advertisement for a husband?" she asked, with a dimple spreading itself! over her chin and a blush appearing on from around it. .. Well," began the reported hope

The lady stuck her head on one side and looked shyly at him. "Thin and ong arms, you know," she hsped. The reporter edged off. Just then the announcer stated that the lady was going around the world. Realizing that it would take the world to go around per, the reporter beat a sneak and reported his assignment uncovered. There is one thing about Trixie. The man who gets her will have his hands full, all right. Last night the Alsha Park was jammed, besides Trixie and Baby there being room in the Hatel street theater for some hundreds of or linary sized folks. There is no truth in the report this
